But sad it is to ask, how long did this victory, gained through the loving kindness, long suffering and death of our blessed Saviour last, and where is the true religion amongst the ten thousand diverse and warring creeds, now to be found. It is a most solemn and grievous fact, beyond all quibble, that the selfish and vainglorious ambition of leaders in the church of Christ, (as has been prophesied by him) have extinguished almost every spark of vital religion, and substituted a puritanical and oppressive code of dogmas and artistic forms in its stead. A cold and hollow hearted sectarian faith has become the merit of a modern membership, which faith, I shall show, from the true character of the human mind, is a thing that has no merit whatever in it. For where is...
