Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Palingenesy National Regeneration The following correspondence explains the nature of Dr. Post s Address, and the reason of its delivery: St. Louis, October 20th, 1864. Rev. Dr. Post - Dear Sir: The patriotism, wisdom and eloquence which you have always exhibited in the discussion of public questions, inspire us with the liveliest desire to hear the oration on National Regeneration, which you recently pronounced at the Commencement of Middlebury College. Believing that an expression of your views upon the restoration and renovation of the Union would be of public service, we cordially invite you to deliver that Address at the Hall of Washington University. The encouragements to loyalty which are based upon political philosophy, enforced by historic example and pervaded by Christian sentiment, cannot fail to be eminently useful. We solicit an early compliance with this request. Yours very truly, W. G. Eliot, C. S. Greeley, George Partridge, James E. Yeatman, Wayman Crow, F. B. Chamberlain, James Richardson, S. B. Kellogg, S. C. Davis, J. P. Collier, Henry Hitchcock, S. Waterhouse. St. Louis, October 22d,...
