Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Legal Phases of the Lincoln and Douglas Debates: Annual Address Before the State Bar Association of Minnesota at Minneapolis, July 14, 1909 A government of the people, by and for the people, cannot maintain protracted warfare, against any considerable power, unless the people are fairly and firmly convinced of its justice. The American republic, at any rate, must be able to show that its occasions for war are legally, no less than morally, impregnable; for the American conception of justice comprehends both. To that end co-operation on the part of the legal profession is indispensable, a truth signally illustrated in the large part which the Bar of America has taken in the two great and significant wars of our national history. Both were waged on the national side in support of definite principles of law; both were fought and won in the arena of debate; and the true history of each is to be found in the annals of an intellectual struggle rather than in the story of battles or campaigns. The War of Independence...
