Local anesthesia, although prior to 1884 it had been induced by freezing, as by salt and ice, ether, and ethyl chlorid, did not attain general popularity before that year, when Roller demonstrated the anesthetic properties of cocain. Since then the advance of surgical anesthesia, both general and local, toward perfection has reached a remarkable point of development, for the attainment of which humanity owes to dentistry no less a debt of gratitude than it does to medicine. In operative interventions in the oral cavity, which, while involving but a...
