Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In 2020 an anonymous narrator, seemingly faced with the end of the world, is given the task of writing the tale of an unknown teenage girl from the remote Lake District town of Egremont. Using diary extracts, newspaper articles, personal interviews, military reports, journalist notebooks, and other more unconventional sources, the narrator lays down the foundations of a story that will grow to challenge what we see, what we feel, and what we believe about our past, our present, and our future. Continue the journey with Undon, book 2 in the series and follow Molly as she slowly surfaces from the drug induced coma forced upon her by those who kidnapped the three girls. As she opens her eyes in a new place, best friend Bethany isn t dealing well with their change in circumstance whilst the beautiful Hannah, recently restored to the land of the living, seems to be adjusting a little too well. The big city, though, is full of dangers, especially for three teenagers with no friends, no money, and no clue as to what is actually going on. As Cumbria s finest ride on the raucous roller coaster that is life beneath the palaces and parks, each girl will have to dig deep in order to protect both themselves and each other. Just how will they survive the underside of London? How did they escape those who took them from their home? Who is it that seems to want them so badly they will kill in order to possess them, and why? Carrying on directly from End of a Girl, Undon will burrow beneath the foundations of one of the great capital cities of...
