The tale of Aladdin, a poor boy who finds a magic lamp containing a genie and eventually marries a princess, is one of Scheherazades from One Thousand and One Nights, and one of the best known. It has been told many times, in many forms and settings including opera, film, and of course many childrens picture books. This one from 1934 and illustrated by C. H. Lawrence is a fine example. The vivid imagery of Aladdins story is one reason it is so beloved over such a long period of time. The cave with its jeweled walls, the all powerful lamp, the genies sudden appearances, the Sultans court and the beautiful Princess all these are wonderfully rendered by the artist C. H. Lawrence. Paired with a text that keeps the storys potency, but simplifies it for younger readers this is a wonderful Aladdin for parents and children to share. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
