*I just began reading this pdf. It is actually written in straightforward words instead of hard to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Not illustrated. 1903 Excerpt: .the University of Michigan who first opened her doors to our daughters, placing them on an equal footing with our sons in obtaining an education fitting them for the earnest duties of life, sweeping aside the fossilized idea of woman s inferiority to man. We believe Michigan to be one of God s best, greatest and brightest creations, a jewel in the diadem of States. If you wish to see a beautiful country and a happy and prosperous people, come to Michigan and look around you. (Applause.) MINNESOTA. Mr. John R. Mitchell (Vice-President Winona Deposit Bank, Winona): Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen: One of the advantages derived from these meetings of the American Bankers Association, and by no means the least advantage, is the opportunity offered of comparing the business conditions in other sections with the existing conditions at home. Voicing the unanimous opinion of the Minnesota delegation, a more interesting and hospitable city in which to hold a convention than San Francisco, could not have been selected. While a prominent writer has made the statement that stories are almost the only thing in California, which do not need irrigation to grow luxuriantly, it is our conviction that the stories or descriptions of this magnificent State have not been able to half describe what the eye can see. Now, as regards business conditions in Minnesota, it would be a difficult matter to differentiate between the kind of prosperity existing there to-day and the prosperity elsewhere throughout...
