Editorial ReviewsReviewI know of no better book for anyone thinking about being a volunteer, overseas or at home. -- Jim Reapson, Editor at Large of Evangelical Missions QuarterlySuccessful Mission Teams has become the foundational primer for nearly 100 Free Methodist Missions teams each year. It has remained at the top of our reading list for team orientation for the past two years. The information is practical, born from experience, based in servanthood, and the best common sense material on team ministry we have found. Those who don't read Successful Mission Teams will spend more time on survival than on ministry. -- Dr. Larry Houck; General Director, Free Methodist World Missions (1999)This book should have been titled, THE Comprehensive Guide for Trips. It is an outstanding resource for anyone going or sending people on a missions trip, and it is just as practical for planning any journey. Highly recommended. -- Church Libraries Winter 2000From the AuthorIf you want to go on a mission team, but don't know where to start, you'll find common sense advice in Successful Mission Teams.
